

ARTIST AGREEMENT

BY SIGNING BELOW, I AGREE:

1. I understand that if my Natchitoches in Bloom design is selected to be a winning design and I accept the opportunity, I will receive $300 initially, then $700 upon completion and delivery of the flower, if the final project adheres to the original submitted design.
2. I understand that I will be reimbursed up to $400 for the cost of art supplies. Detailed receipts are required for reimbursement.
3. I understand that the flowers will be placed in public areas, so appropriateness for a public viewing audience must be considered.
4. I understand that the judging will be completed by a "blind" panel who will not see artists' names.
5. I understand if my flower design is selected, I will be responsible for completing the design as submitted. If the finished design does not adhere to the original submitted design, the Natchitoches in Bloom Committee will not be held responsible for final payment. If I am unable to complete the design, I will be responsible for reimbursing the initial $300 to the Natchitoches in Bloom Committee.
6. I understand that colorfastness is an integral component to this outdoor, public art project, so I will only use the high-quality materials provided for me by the Natchitoches in Bloom Committee.
7. If selected, I am responsible for the pickup and delivery of the flower.
8. I understand that I am not to put a sealant on the flower or to install it at any location.
9. I understand the following timeline:

DESIGN SUBMISSION DEADLINE: MONDAY, MAY 1, 2023

COMPLETED SCULPTURE DESIGN DEADLINE: MONDAY, JULY 31, 2023

Email to jessica@canerivernha.org or turn in physical submissions on the due date at Cane River National Heritage Area. Selected artists will be notified of winning submissions by Monday, May 22, 2023.

I understand that there will be a two-month completion time frame for the Natchitoches in Bloom project. This will be in MONTH of YEARS. Specific dates will be coordinated with the artist and the committee. Project completion is anticipated for Monday, July 31, 2023. The Natchitoches in Bloom Committee will notify artists in advance when the blank flowers will be ready for pick up.

Should an Art Educator's Class decide to submit designs the Educator will be responsible for making sure the design meets the requirements. All grade levels are encouraged to participate.

I certify that my contact information listed below is current and factual.

By signing below, I also agree:

The Natchitoches in Bloom Committee and Partners/Sponsors have exclusive rights to use submitted artwork for reproduction, promotional purposes, fundraising, and display without compensation.
